

FIL Ltd. owns 2.97% of EVS Broadcast Equipment

LIEGE, Belgium, October 3, 2011 - Pursuant to the Belgian Law of May 2, 2007 relating to the publication of major shareholdings, EVS Broadcast Equipment (Euronext Brussels: EVS.BR) announces that it has recently received a notification of the threshold of 3% being crossed down by FIL Limited (Fidelity International Limited), which now owns 404,500 shares, or 2.97% of the total number of voting rights of EVS (3.26% in the previous notification dated June 28, 2011).

The notification, received on September 29, 2011, states that the threshold has been crossed on September 15, 2011, and that the holdings attributable to FIL Limited arise from holdings of various undertakings for collective investment that are managed by FIL Limited, FIL Pension Management, FIL Investment Services Limited, Fidelity Investments Japan, FIL Investments Advisory (Korea) Ltd and FIL Investment Management (Hong Kong) Limited, each of which are entities that are subsidiaries of and controlled by FIL Limited. These undertakings for collective investment have granted FIL Limited discretionary power to vote the securities in accordance with the FIL Limited board proxy voting policy. FIL Limited is not a controlled undertaking.
